

THE CLIFF

HEAD BAKER

An exceptional opportunity presents itself for a Head Baker to be part of an iconic opening of The Cliff. If you are an outgoing, ambitious and enthusiastic Baker with strong people skills, high standards and a true passion for good food, then we are looking for you!

Our successful candidate will be a leader, self motivated, and creative Head Baker with strong hands on experience working within a professional kitchen. You will be committed to upholding high standards for our guests and keen to continue to develop your knowledge and skills within a driven operation.

CORE WORK ACTIVITIES

- Ensure the smooth management of the preparation and presentation of a variety of European quality breads and breakfast pastries.
- Produce exemplary food for all services as required, with an effective management of the team and department.
- To have a complete understanding of, and adhere to the company's policy relating to fire, hygiene and safety.
- To ensure that operating and kitchen equipment is maintained to a good standard with minimum breakage.
- Ensure that training on a one-to-one basis has been carried out and comprehended as per the monthly training plan.
- To check the incoming produce, ensuring that all food merchandise is accurate with order sheets, receiving records and purchasing specifications.
- To maximize colleagues productivity, morale and consistently maintain discipline following company guidelines.

- To ensure that all outlet reports, schedules, standard recipes, menus, food presentation photographs and correspondence are completed in liaison with the Executive Pastry Chef and Executive Chefs in an accurate and punctual manner.
- To develop menus and set standard recipes (as per SOPs) which allow the section to run at an acceptable food cost, thereby satisfying guest needs and expectations.
- Plans and implements effective food promotions in coordination with the Chefs office.
- Any other duties as may reasonably be requested by the management.

We offer an excellent package with a competitive salary for the right individual.
Please send your resume / CV to:

applications@thecliffbarbados.com to be considered for an interview.

Place The Cliff and the position which you are applying for in the subject line of the email.